The Story of a Clinical Neuropsychologist

Barbara A. Wilson, Oliver Zangwill Centre for Neuropsychological Rehabilitation, Cambridgeshire, UK

This unique book tells the life story of Barbara A. Wilson, a leading international authority on brain injury rehabilitation. Including insights into the extraordinary lives of brain injured people, the book describes her journey from her disadvantaged childhood to her ultimate success at the top of her field as both a scientific researcher and clinician. The book highlights the trials, triumphs and honours of Professor Wilson's professional career interspersed with her personal story, including the tragic death of her adult firstborn daughter. Her story will be fascinating reading for all clinical and neuropsychologists, as well as those living with brain injury and their families.
